

Job Advert: Early Years Music Teacher

Questors Young Musicians Club – Ealing, West London

Part-time | Saturdays during term time | £43.50 per hour

About Questors Young Musicians Club (QYMC)

Questors Young Musicians Club (QYMC) is seeking an enthusiastic and inspiring Early Years Music Teacher to join our friendly and vibrant Saturday music school at Little Ealing Primary School, West London.

The role involves teaching children aged 18 months to 6 years across our four-level early years music programme, developing their musical confidence, creativity and enjoyment through singing, movement, musical games, percussion and introductory instrument lessons.

About the role

You will deliver engaging, age-appropriate music sessions that develop children's listening skills, rhythm, aural awareness and understanding of musical concepts. For older children, you will also introduce basic notation and provide opportunities to explore instruments.

Our aim is to nurture a lifelong love of music, build strong musical foundations and prepare children for future instrumental learning. Full details of the Early Years programme can be found here:
